Each of the four units in this course – Getting Started, Communication, Assessment and Collaboration - contains an introduction, a lesson, a review, and a practice simulation. You may revisit any of the units or sections at any point. However, if this is your first time taking this course, we recommend you complete each unit in the order presented. The entire course will take you 30 – 40 minutes. You are not being timed, and you may work at your own pace.

To begin a unit, tap the section title from your navigation menu at the top of the page. This is the unit introduction. You will then proceed to the unit's lesson, review, and practice. You may also utilize the arrows at the bottom of each page to navigate the site.
