

Course Summary

Transcript

You are now familiar with the fundamentals of the TWEN course management system, including accessing course materials, communicating, completing assignments and quizzes, and participating in group activities, including wiki's and class polls. Using TWEN in your law school studies will help you will help you manage your courses and extracurricular activities, as well as refine your Westlaw legal research skills, which throughout your legal practice career.

We hope you have enjoyed this course. Please take a moment to visit our Share Your Thoughts page to leave a comment about the course on our virtual wall and to complete a brief survey.